Hey Everyone. Sorry I haven't been very active lately. I've been dealing with a bad right hip. Yesterday, I had hip replacement surgery, and I'll be out of the shop for another month or so. I'm currently recuperating with a bit of leftover surgery pain, which is expected. I've gone through this four years ago when I had my left hip replaced. Combine this with my two spinal fusions, my doctors are turning me into the first ever human cyborg, lol.
