I will get to it.... been a busy two weeks. It's on my list.

16:01:06 From Safety Sue:
I'm not going to answer the question. The Postal Service became self sufficient since 1972. The only thing that the government does is pay them back for free mail for the Congress, the President etc. They also owe the {postal Service for the Blind and for Service members. The Government failed to repay USPS for. Services given.
