Just booked another EWT demo. This one is at the new Hartville Hardware in Middlefield, OH, October 24 and 25. This will be the Grand Opening of the new location and should be a huge event. If you're in NE Ohio, or would like to make the trip, I would love to have you come by. EWT is having a 10% off sale during October and Hartville is going to match it during this event, so 20% off on Easy Wood Tools. There should be other great deals for all your woodworking needs.
